There have been several reports of courier fraud, one in Holt and another in Trowbridge, and quite often they will operate in postcodes. This has involved the victim receiving a telephone call with someone posing to be Wiltshire police officers, they state they aware that there has been attempts made to use the victims bank cards and they are looking for assistance to investigate an organised crime group. They then give them instructions to go to their local bank and withdrawn a large amount of money (sterling and euros), they are asked not to tell anyone and told what to tell the bank staff if challenged.
A courier is then arranged to collect the money from their address.

Can I please ask that any suspicious activity is reported via 101 or 999
